

FREE!

Antimicrobial use in food animals: Perspectives, Policy and Progress in ASIA

March 16th, 2017 9.30 am – 3.00 pm

VIV Asia 2017, BITEC Convention Center, Bangkok, Thailand

09.30-10.00	Registration
10:00-10:30	Opening ceremony and FAVA gratitudes Prof. Dr. Dau Ngoc Hao, FAVA, President and Prof. Dr. Achariya Sailasuta, FAVA Secretary General
10:30-11:00	Global overview on antibiotic use, AMU policy in veterinary medicine Dr. Shabbir Simjee, Eli Lilly & Company (Elanco), England
11:00-11:30	Policy of AMU in livestock in Thailand Dr. Julaporn Srinha, Department of Livestock Development, MOAC, Thailand
11.30-12.00	Economic, welfare and sustainability impact of eliminating antibiotics from USA broiler production Dr. Matthew Salois, Eli Lilly & Company (Elanco), England
12.00-13.00	LUNCH
13.00-13.30	Antibiotic alternatives in practice Ms. Orawan Amnucksaradej, Research and Innovation Manager Vet Products Group, Thailand
13.30-14.15	Innovation to reduce AMU and AMR in veterinary medicine Assoc.Prof.Dr. Rungtip Chuanchuen, Head of Research Unit in Microbial Food Safety and Antimicrobial Resistance (CUFSAR), Faculty of Veterinary Science, Chulalongkorn University
14.15-14.45	Round table discussion
14.45-15.00	Conclusion and closing Prof. Dr. Achariya Sailasuta, FAVA Secretary General

- Register at <https://www.databadge.net/viva2017/reg/viv/>
- Send your request for attendance to vetcufsar@gmail.com by 3 March 2017.