To : FAVA Executive Committee and Councilors

Dear Councilors,

It is great to announce that in this beginning of the year 2020 FAVA collaborated with VNU Asia Pacific organizing the Asian Animal Health Award 2020. This activity is one of the continuous support of VNU to the FAVA Activities specially to recognized and appreciated to the person who give a great contribution to the animal health in Asia Region.

We would like to ask you to distribute this information to your members and hoping they will participate in this award selection. The detail information of this award selection are attached. Since the period of selection is very short (the deadline submission of the application is February 24th; Notification winner is March 09th and Award Ceremony is March 24th). We do hope you will be actively shared and/or nominated the candidate(s).

Thanks you for your kind consideration and response.

Sincerely yours.

Dr. Heru Setijanto
