

Ensuring excellence
and ethics of the Veterinary Profession

OIE Global Conference on Veterinary Education and the Role of the Veterinary Statutory Body

4 to 6 December 2013 - Foz do Iguazu (Brazil)

Dr. Achariya Sailasuta, FAVA Secretary General was invited to participate the 3rd Global Conference on Veterinary Education and the Role of the Veterinary Statutory Body hosted by World Organization for Animal Health, OIE during 4-6 December, 2013, in Foz do Iguazu, Brazil.

In the conference, Dr. Achariya Sailasuta was an invited speaker in the topic “PERSPECTIVES OF THE FEDERATION OF ASIAN VETERINARY ASSOCIATIONS, FAVA ON VETERINARY EDUCATION”. The lecture was focused on the unified veterinary curriculum and accreditation in Asian-ASEAN Veterinary Schools. The important roles of FAVA on support and facilitate the veterinary schools in collaborating to achieve the goal of global standard and undeniable need to define the “day-one-competency” of the veterinary graduate. The conference was a successfully platform for the academic and professionalism.